FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

In January 2019, the Fund's performance increased by 0.11%, but underperforming the benchmark by 0.62%.

The KLCI closed flat in January, bucking the regional uplift supported by a dramatic dovish shift from the Fed and policy rhetoric from China amidst ongoing US-China trade talks and weak fundamental data. MSCI MY was flat, underperforming Asia Pac ex-Japan by 6.8%. The MYR closed 0.9% m-o-m higher, in line with dollar weakness, and higher oil (Brent crude oil raised 15% m-o-m). Foreign investors turned net buyers of close to RM1 billion in January, after three consecutive months of net selling; partly reversing net outflows of RM11.7 billion in 2018. In what we deem as a rotational trade, last year's losers outperformed particularly the Genting Group, and telecommunications. Meanwhile, plantations outperformed on the 5% m-o-m rise in CPO price. Exporters underperformed on strong MYR, leading to underperformance in healthcare and materials. Defensive utilities underperformed.

During the month, Malaysia Government Securities ("MGS") yield curve bull flattened with yields dropping the most in the 7-year segment. The 7-year tightened by 13 bps and the long-end MGS tightened between 7 to 9 bps during the month. The 3-, 5-, 15-, 20- and 30-year MGS yields traded lower at 3.61% (-2bps), 3.80% (-5bps), 4.43% (-4 bps), 4.59% (-7bps) and 4.79% (-9bps) respectively at end of January save for the 10-year which remained unchanged at 4.11% (-0bps).
