FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

In June 2019, the Fund's performance increased by 1.08%, outperforming the benchmark by 0.50%.

Malaysian equities benefitted from a relief rally in June stemming from expectation of Fed rate cuts and a de-escalation of US-China trade war. The FTSE Bursa Malaysia KLCI Index ("KLCI") gained 1.29% in June 2019 which led to the narrowing of 1H 19 losses to 1.1%. TNB (+9.0%), Axiata (+6.2%) and MAHB (+16.2%) were some of the notable gainers among the FBMKLCI component stocks. Domestic factors which also helped to boost the market include dissipating concern over regulatory risk, particularly for airport operator MAHB, following the release of the latest consultation paper on the implementation of Regulatory Asset Base (RAB) framework. Investors' risk appetite for small and mid-cap stocks also improved judging by FBM Small Cap Index's gain of 3.6% in June (YTD +15%).

During the month, the MGS yield curve moved lower across mostly all tenures (between 11-22bps). Overall, better buying was seen from the continuation of dovish sentiment both from global (dovish Fed, trade wars) and local factors (less supply pipeline + domestic demand). The 3-, 5-, 7-, 10-, 15-, 20- and 30-year MGS yields traded lower to close at 3.32% (-11bps), 3.43% (-15bps), 3.55% (-14bps), 3.63% (-15bps), 3.94% (-18bps), 4.08% (-22bps) and 4.36% (-21bps) respectively at the end of June.
