FUND MANAGER’S COMMENTS

The Fund delivered 0.14% in the month of January 2022, underperforming the benchmark by 1bps, and delivered 1.61% in the 12-months period ending 31 January 2022, underperforming the benchmark by 13bps.

Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) held the overnight policy rate (OPR) at 1.75% at its first monetary policy meeting of the year, its lowest since July 2020. In its statement, BNM said it considers current policy to be appropriate and accommodative. Additionally, BNM also said that the stance of monetary policy will continue to be determined by new data and their implications on the overall outlook.

Malaysia’s November industrial production index (IPI) grew by 9.4% YOY in November. The expansion of IPI was attributed to an increase of 11.3% in manufacturing index, 5.1% in the electricity index and 3.7% in the mining index. M-o-M, the IPI increased by 0.9% driven by the manufacturing index and mining index.

December CPI stood at 3.2% YOY (0.4% m-o-m), slightly higher than consensus estimate of 3.1%, but lower than November’s print of 3.3% YOY (0.24% m-o-m). The main drive of December inflation remained non-durable goods, while services inflation picked up. National inflation for the period January to December 2021 showed a significant increase of 2.5% as compared to a -1.2% for the same period in 2020.

Malaysia’s total trade in December 2021 surged by 26.8%, reaching RM216.7 billion as compared to RM171.0 billion in the previous year. Exports continued to increase with double-digit growth of 29.2% to RM123.8 billion as compared to December 2020. Meanwhile, imports rose by 23.6% YOY in December 2021 amounted at RM92.9 billion.

We limit our investment exposure to short-term deposit placements due to the very low risk nature of the Fund.

RISKS

Returns not guaranteed	The investment of the fund is subject to market fluctuations and its inherent risk. There is NO GUARANTEE on the investment returns, nor any assurance that the target fund's investment objective will be achieved.
General market environment risk	Market risk refers to the possibility that an investment will lose value because of a general decline in financial markets, due to economic, political and/or other factors, which will result in a decline in the target fund's NAV.
Inflation risk	This is the risk that your investment in the target fund may not grow or generate income at a rate that keeps pace with inflation. This would reduce your purchasing power even though the value of the investment in monetary terms has increased.
Financing risk	This risk occurs when you obtain financing to finance your investment. The inherent risk of investing with money obtained from financing includes you being unable to service the financing payments.
Manager's risk	This risk refers to the day-to-day management of the target fund by Principal which will impact the performance of the target fund, e.g. investment decisions undertaken by Principal as a result of an incorrect view of the market may adversely affect the performance of the target fund.
Reclassification of Shariah non-compliant status risk	This risk refers to the risk that the currently held Shariah-compliant securities in the target fund may be reclassified as Shariah non-compliant in the periodic review of the securities by the Shariah Advisory Council of the Securities Commission Malaysia (SACSC), the Shariah adviser, the Shariah boards of the relevant Islamic indices or the Shariah adviser of the issuer.
Credit and default risk	Investment of the target fund may involve a certain degree of credit and default risk. Generally, credit and default risk is the risk of loss due to the counterparty's and/or issuer's non-payment or untimely payment of the investment amount as well as the returns on investment. Principal aim to mitigate this risk by performing fundamental credit research and analysis to determine the creditworthiness of its counterparty and/or issuer. Investment in the target fund is not the same as placing funds in a Shariah-compliant deposit with a licensed Islamic financial institution. There are risks involved and investors should rely on their own evaluation to assess the merits and risks when investing in the target fund.
