FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

Despite some short-term volatility due to the possibility of foreign outflows, the increasing evidence that the global and domestic economy is slowing down as well as ending of tightening measures from US, will continue to support the bond market. We see any sell off by foreigners as an opportunity to buy government sukuk at a higher yield. As such, we will continue to lengthen duration to 6.0 to 6.5 years while remaining invested in liquid papers.
