FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

- The Global Islamic Index declined in June. Britain's unexpected decision to leave the European Union sent shockwaves across global markets. Investors retreated to perceived safe havens, such as the yen and gold. Government bond yields plunged, oil prices slumped and sterling plummeted to a 30-year low against the US dollar.
- Central banks in the US, UK, Japan and Switzerland maintained their dovish policy stance as economic growth remained sluggish.
- In the US, the Fed's initial plans to raise rates this year have taken a back seat for now.
- In June, we added to CVS Health, Estee Lauder and Unilever.
