FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

The Fund gained 2.93% during the month of December 2016, underperforming the benchmark which increased 3.21%. Stock selection in the underlying Europe funds contributed negatively. Year-to-date, the Fund has gained 5.92%, while the benchmark has risen 9.10%.

December saw a continuation of the Trumponomic trades; higher US yields on hopes of higher fiscal spending, rotation into equities from bonds as well an outperformance of developed market equities overemerging. Capital was reallocated to financials(beneficiaries of reflation and steeper yield curves), value (on expectations that growth would no longer be as scarce) and US equities (corporate tax cuts). European equities experienced large outflows as political uncertainty kept investors on the sidelines in the region. Japan, after experiencing significant outflows from equities till first half of 2016 (1H16), saw a dramatic recovery in sentiment as JPY/USD weakened.

The Fund will maintain its overweight in the US and underweight in Europe and Japan.
