FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

The fund fell by 0.18% in November 2015, and underperformed the benchmark by 0.62%. On a year-to-date ("YTD") basis, the fund fell 3.17%, while the benchmark dropped 2.39%.

In November 2015, the FTSE Bursa Malaysia Kuala Lumpur Composite Index ("FBMKLCI") edged up 6 points or 0.39% to close at 1,672 points. On a YTD basis, the index is down 5.06%. November 2015 was a month of consolidation for Malaysia on the back of a stronger Wall Street and Malaysian Ringgit. News about the sale of Edra's power assets to the Chinese, as well as China's commitment to buy Malaysian bonds also helped to boost sentiment. We expect more volatility ahead as market debates the U.S rate liftoff in mid December 2015. Locally, post the disappointing third quarter of 2015 ("3Q15") results season; we expect more downgrades in 2016. Hence, the market remains fair.

As we position for 2016, we will stay focused on stocks with quality growth, strong cash flows and sustainable dividends. We continue to like exporters which are supported by expansion plans and sustainable demand for their products. Hence, we will keep our exposures in Technology, Gloves and Furniture. We have neutralised our position in Plantations as we brace for the possibility of a stronger-than-expected El-Nino in 2016. We will also keep our Construction exposure as we expect more contract newsflow next year. For fixed income, we prefer to concentrate on selective re-priced corporate bonds from the primary and secondary market with higher yields for better yield enhancement.
