FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

- Global equities rose in April, amid lingering growth concerns and deteriorating corporate earnings.
- Energy prices rose, but remain vulnerable to further corrections as major producers again failed to agree to a common strategy.
- The US Federal Reserve kept rates unchanged, forcing the dollar to soften, after first quarter growth decelerated at a disappointing 0.5%.
- In April, we introduced German agricultural seeds company KWS Saat, a market leader with good pricing power and a robust pipeline of business. We also added to Perrigo.
