FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

The Fund delivered 0.26% in June 2026 which was outperforming the benchmark by 3bps, and delivered 1.47% in the 12-months period ending 30 June 2026, outperforming the benchmark by 10bps.

Malaysia's inflation rate rose 2.0% YoY in May (April: 1.9%), driven mainly by increases in information and communication, food & beverages and housing related costs & recreation, sport & culture. On a month-on-month basis, headline inflation increased 0.1% in May, slowing from the 0.4% rise recorded in April.

Total trade in May 2026 amounted to RM327.6 billion with exports and imports valued at RM184 billion and RM143.6 billion, respectively. Exports sustained their all time high for the 11th consecutive month as it increased by RM57.4 billion or 45.3% on a Y-o-Y basis with shipments largely driven by Penang, while imports increased by 14.1%. The rise in imports were also driven by Penang. Electrical and electronic (E&E) products remained the key contributor, increasing by RM38bil to a new record high, supported by strong demand for artificial intelligence (AI)-related and automotive technologies.

Malaysia's industrial production increased 8.2% YoY in April 2026, accelerating from the 3.1% rise seen in the month prior and surpassing market expectations. The strong uptick was driven by a faster expansion in manufacturing output. Growth was broad-based across all manufacturing sub-sectors, led by E&E, transport equipment, food & beverages amongst others.

Export growth surged 36.9% YoY in April 2026 (March: +8.3%) to a record RM182.74bn, the strongest since August 2022, driven by firm external demand and a spike in re-exports. Manufacturing led (+40.1%), supported by E&E (+46.4%) and petroleum (+70.2%), while mining rebounded (+25.6%) and agriculture returned to growth (+5.2%).

We limit our investment exposure to short-term deposit placements due to the very low risk nature of the Fund.

RISKS

Returns not guaranteed	The investment of the fund is subject to market fluctuations and its inherent risk. There is NO GUARANTEE on the investment returns, nor any assurance that the target fund's investment objective will be achieved.
General market environment risk	Market risk refers to the possibility that an investment will lose value because of a general decline in financial markets, due to economic, political and/or other factors, which will result in a decline in the target fund's NAV.
Inflation risk	This is the risk that your investment in the target fund may not grow or generate income at a rate that keeps pace with inflation. This would reduce your purchasing power even though the value of the investment in monetary terms has increased.
Financing risk	This risk occurs when you obtain financing to finance your investment. The inherent risk of investing with money obtained from financing includes you being unable to service the financing payments.
Manager's risk	This risk refers to the day-to-day management of the target fund by Principal which will impact the performance of the target fund, e.g. investment decisions undertaken by Principal as a result of an incorrect view of the market may adversely affect the performance of the target fund.
Reclassification of Shariah non-compliant status risk	This risk refers to the risk that the currently held Shariah-compliant securities in the target fund may be reclassified as Shariah non-compliant in the periodic review of the securities by the Shariah Advisory Council of the Securities Commission Malaysia (SACSC), the Shariah adviser, the Shariah boards of the relevant Islamic indices or the Shariah adviser of the issuer.
Credit and default risk	Investment of the target fund may involve a certain degree of credit and default risk. Generally, credit and default risk is the risk of loss due to the counterparty's and/or issuer's non-payment or untimely payment of the investment amount as well as the returns on investment. Principal aim to mitigate this risk by performing fundamental credit research and analysis to determine the creditworthiness of its counterparty and/or issuer. Investment in the target fund is not the same as placing funds in a Shariah-compliant deposit with a licensed Islamic financial institution. There are risks involved and investors should rely on their own evaluation to assess the merits and risks when investing in the target fund.
