CHARTER OF THE NOMINATION AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

1. Purpose

The primary purpose of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (NRC or Committee) are to:

- 1.1 Establish a documented, formal and transparent procedure for the appointment of Directors and Senior Management, and to assess the effectiveness of Directors, the Board as a whole and the various committees of the Board and the Senior Management.
- 1.2 Provide a formal and transparent procedure governing the remuneration of Directors and Senior Management, and ensuring that their compensation is consistent with the Company's culture, objective and strategy.

2. Membership

The Board of Directors (Board) shall establish a NRC comprising:

2.1 Members:

- 2.1.1 have at least three (3) directors;
- 2.1.2 have a majority of independent directors;
- 2.1.3 be chaired by an independent director; and
- 2.1.4 comprise directors who have the skills, knowledge and experience relevant to the responsibilities of the board committee.

2.2 Chairperson

The Committee must be chaired by an Independent Non-Executive Director. In order to avoid conflict of interest, a member of the Committee shall abstain from participating in discussions and decisions on matters directly involving him/her.

In case the Chairperson of the Committee is on leave or unable to exercise his/her powers for any cause, the Chairperson shall appoint a Director to act on his/her behalf. In the absence of such an appointment, the Directors shall elect from amongst themselves one (1) person to act on the behalf of the Chairperson.

3. Committee's Duties and Responsibilities

3.1 The responsibilities of the NRC with regards to the nominating role are as follows: -

- 3.1.1 Establishing minimum requirements for the Board and the Chief Executive Officer to perform their responsibilities effectively. It is also responsible for overseeing the overall composition of the Board in terms of the appropriate size and mix of skills, the balance between Executive Directors, Non-Executive and Independent Directors and other core competencies required, through annual reviews.

The NRC shall also review the mix of skills of the members of the Board Committees through annual reviews.

- 3.1.2 Recommending and assessing the fitness and propriety of nominees for directorship, the Directors to fill the Board Committees as well as nominees for the position of the Chief Executive Officer and the Company Secretary. This includes assessing the Directors and the Chief Executive Officer proposal for re-appointment before an application for approval is submitted to Bank Negara Malaysia;
- 3.1.3 Establishing a mechanism for formal assessment and assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the contribution by each Director to the effectiveness of the Board, the contribution of the Board's various committees and the performance of the Senior Management on an annual basis;
- 3.1.4 Recommending to the Board on the removal of a Director/Chief Executive Officer if he/she is ineffective, errant or negligent in discharging his/her responsibilities;
- 3.1.5 Ensuring that all Directors undergo appropriate induction programs and receive continuous training; which shall include Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) and climate-related capacity building and training;
- 3.1.6 Overseeing the appointment, succession planning and performance evaluation of Senior Management and recommending to the Board the removal of Senior Management if they are ineffective, errant and negligent in discharging their responsibilities;
- 3.1.7 To seek the services of such advisors or consultants as it deems necessary to fulfill its responsibilities; and
- 3.1.8 Review the list of Key Responsible Persons as defined in the Bank Negara Malaysia guidelines annually and make changes as appropriate.

The appointment and assessment must be approved by the Board and disclosed to the shareholders of the Company. The NRC should not be delegated with decision making powers but should be obliged to report its recommendations to the Board for decision.

3.2 The duties and responsibilities of the NRC with regards to the remuneration role are as follows: -

- 3.2.1 Recommending a framework of remuneration for Directors and Senior Management. The remuneration policy should: -
 - a) be documented and approved by the Board and any changes thereto should be subject to the endorsement of the Board;
 - b) reflect the experience and level of responsibility borne by individual Directors and Senior Management;
 - c) be sufficient to attract and retain Directors and Senior Management of caliber needed to manage the Company successfully;
 - d) be balanced against the need to ensure that the funds of the Company are not used to subsidise excessive remuneration packages and should not create incentives for irresponsible behavior for insider excesses; and
 - e) be in line with all relevant laws and regulation pertaining to remuneration.

3.2.2 Recommending specific remuneration packages for Directors and Senior Management. The remuneration packages should: -

- a) be based on an objective consideration and approved by the Board;
- b) take due consideration of the assessments of the effectiveness and contribution of the Directors and Senior Management;
- c) not to be decided by the exercise of sole discretion of any one individual or restricted group of individuals; and
- d) be competitive and is consistent with the Company's culture, objective and strategy.

3.2.3 The remuneration packages for the Chief Executive Officer should be structured to link rewards to corporate and individual performances including ESG and climate-related strategy and targets to encourage high performance standards. However, the rewards-to-performance linkages should not create incentives for irresponsible behavior and insider excesses.

3.2.4 As for Non-Executive Directors and Independent Directors, the level of remuneration should be linked to their level of responsibilities undertaken and contribution to the effective functioning of the Board.

3.2.5 The framework for remuneration and specific packages must be approved by the Board. The NRC should not be delegated with decision-making powers but should report its recommendation to the Board for decision.

4. Structure and Operations

4.1 Frequency of Meetings

The Committee should meet as and when required, at a minimum once a year to deliberate on matters relating to its responsibilities.

In the absence of a meeting, issues shall be resolved by way of circular resolutions and decisions shall be unanimous. The circular resolutions may consist of several documents in the same form, each executed by one or more of the members of the Committee. Any such resolutions may be transmitted by the members of the Committee via email to the Secretary or any other appropriate means.

4.2 Quorum

4.2.1 The quorum for NRC Meetings shall be at least half of the members to be present.

4.2.2 All decisions at the meetings of the Committee shall be decided unanimously.

4.3 Secretary

The Company Secretary or a representative from the Company Secretarial Department shall act as the Secretary of the Committee.

4.4 Other

On an annual basis, the Committee shall review the Charter and where necessary, recommend for changes, where deemed fit, to the Board for approval. The Committee shall undertake and review with the Board on the annual performance evaluation of the Committee.
