4 Other Key Terms

- Importance of disclosure - You must disclose all material facts such as medical condition and state your age correctly. Otherwise, you may risk having your claim rejected or contract terminated.
- Grace period - You are given a grace period of 60 days from the contribution due date for the payment of contribution. If you do not pay the contribution within 60 days grace period from the contribution due date for the first 3 years, your contract will lapse, and the universal account value (if any) less deferred wakalah fee, together with the reinvested cash payout (if any) as at the valuation date immediately following the end date of the 60-day grace period, will be payable.
- Profit Equalisation Reserve (PER) - The PER mechanism helps reduce the variability of investment returns by spreading gains and losses over several years. Using the PER, some investment profits (unexpected profits*) are set aside during periods of high returns to offset losses during periods of low returns, such that the overall returns are more stable over time. At any point in time, the ownership and the distribution of the PER is governed by the Mudharabah profit sharing ratio. Upon termination of the contract, your rights over any unpaid portion of investment profit will be waived (tanazul).

Unexpected profit consists of:

- any realized and unrealized capital gains in equity investment and dividend income that exceeded the expected equity gain; plus
- any realized gains from the profit of Shariah-compliant fixed income instruments.

*For more information on the applicable rates and how we set the threshold for equities, please visit Sun Life Malaysia's corporate website at www.sunlifemalaysia.com.

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the contract documents for the full list of terms and conditions.

- Written notice - You may cancel your takaful coverage at anytime by giving written notice to us. The value of the universal account less deferred wakalah fee (if any) plus the value of the unit fund account (if any) will be payable.
